NORTHWEST ALLEN COUNTY SCHOOLS

HUNTERTOWN, INDIANA

SUCCESS

IN '66

1966 was a tremendously successful year for 1221 vivacious students at the Northwest Allen County School at Huntertown. Success was captured in academics where we grew in knowledge, in sports where we found challenging rivals, in organizations where we gained leadership and valuable experience, and in meeting fellow classmates where we acquired lasting friendships.

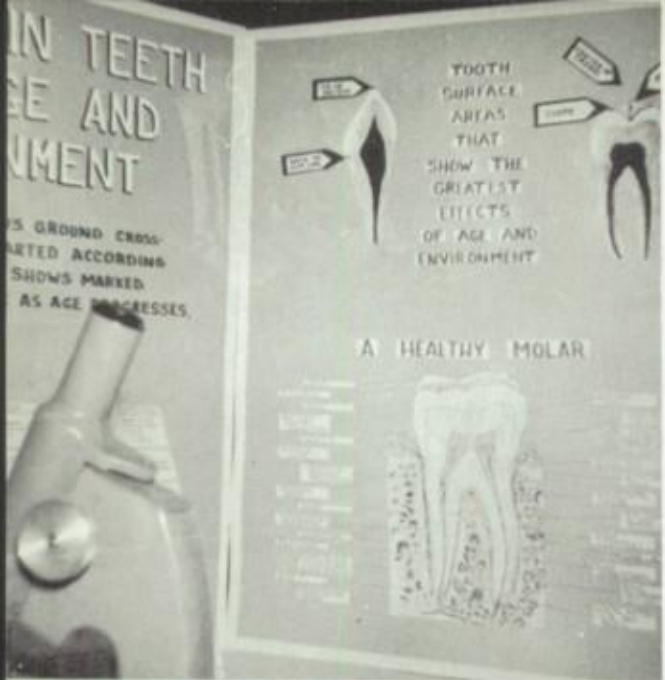

Although the year is over and we have succeeded in many things, it is only the beginning of our success. We have gleaned.

Bill Lucas and Sue Buckmaster are crowned king and queen of the prom as the court looks on.

Kathy Manter, Kathy Lambert, and Phil Sloffer are enjoying refreshments at the prom.

In the picture at the right, it looks as if the Seniors take delight in their last prom.

"Stairway to the Stars" was the theme chosen by the Juniors for this year's prom held May 8th at the Fort Wayne Women's Club. After an evening of dancing, Bill Lucas and Sue Buckmaster were crowned king and queen. Terry Howdyshell, John Dennison, Roy Wells, Connie Neuhouser, Cindy Parrish, and Penny Richards were named to the court.

The after-prom party was held at the Hoagland Hayloft this year. Playing for the party were the Threats, a Huntertown group.

Here some Juniors are dancing the night away.

In the pictures below we see the Threats playing for the after-prom party.

In the lowest picture, it looks as if Dan Freck and Tony Martin are ready for refreshments at the prom.

A toast at the after-prom party....pop, of course.

The after-prom party is lively despite the hour.

RIDERS TO THE SEA

ENGLISH - THE BASIS OF EDUCATION

Rhonda Vinson, Jean Malcolm, Mark Helge, and Diane Potter look happy and relieved as they turn in term papers to Mr. Helm.

Our English Department was busy this year with term papers, themes, and plays.

Mr. Bruskotter directed the Senior English class in the writing of their term papers which were on the philosophy of life of an author. The Sophomore classes, under his direction, were also given tasks. The Speech and Drama class gave speeches, performed plays and wrote original plays.

The Juniors had their first experience in writing term papers and Mr. Helm chose the Supreme Court for their theme.

Miss Ratliff kept the Sophomores and Freshmen busy with themes and tests.

Here Suzie Ringler, and Suzi Cain do a scene from Romeo and Juliet.

Suzie Ringler, Suzi Cain, and Vicki Faylor look involved as they read lines from a play.

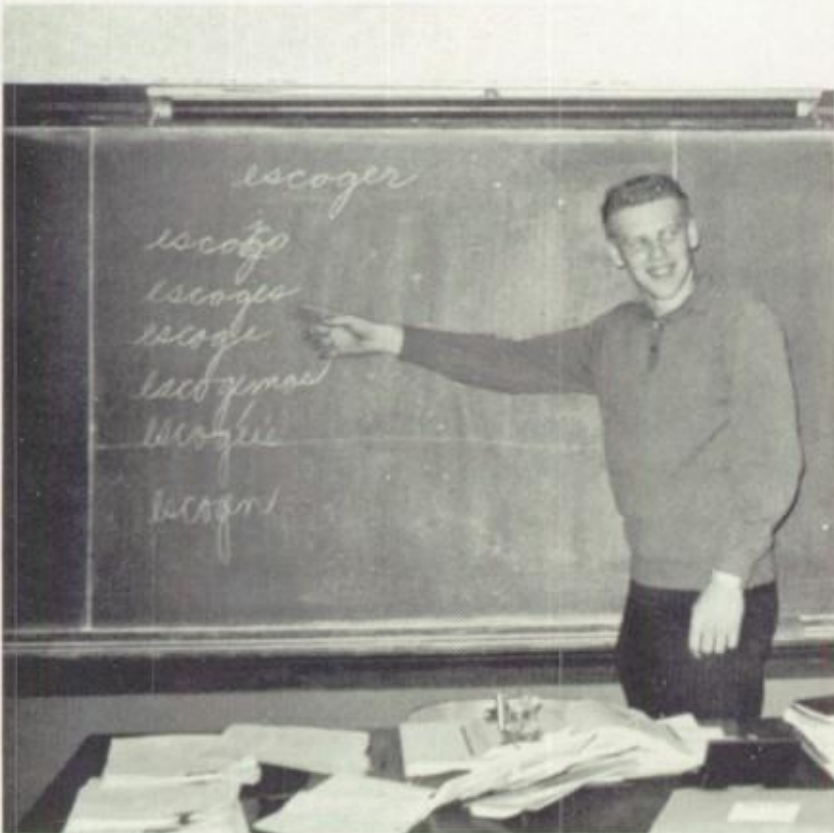

LAS CLASES DE ESPANOL

Carolyn Scherrer, a Spanish II student, "attempts" to read a Spanish newspaper.

In Spanish III the students are more active, as shown by Dan McComb.

Mike Zehr shows how to conjugate a verb.

The Spanish classes under the direction of Mrs. Duff have been very active this year.

In Spanish I the students learned the basic fundamentals. Spanish II students learned how to apply these fundamentals. Spanish III was a new addition to the Spanish department. In Spanish III the students went one step further and applied all the fundamentals they had learned in Spanish I and II.

Rats are traditional in Zoology and Karen Simon and Walter Green dissect theirs here.

It's Physics and Terry Howdyshell looks determined to get his experiment right.

FROM GRASS ROOTS TO SQUARE ROOTS

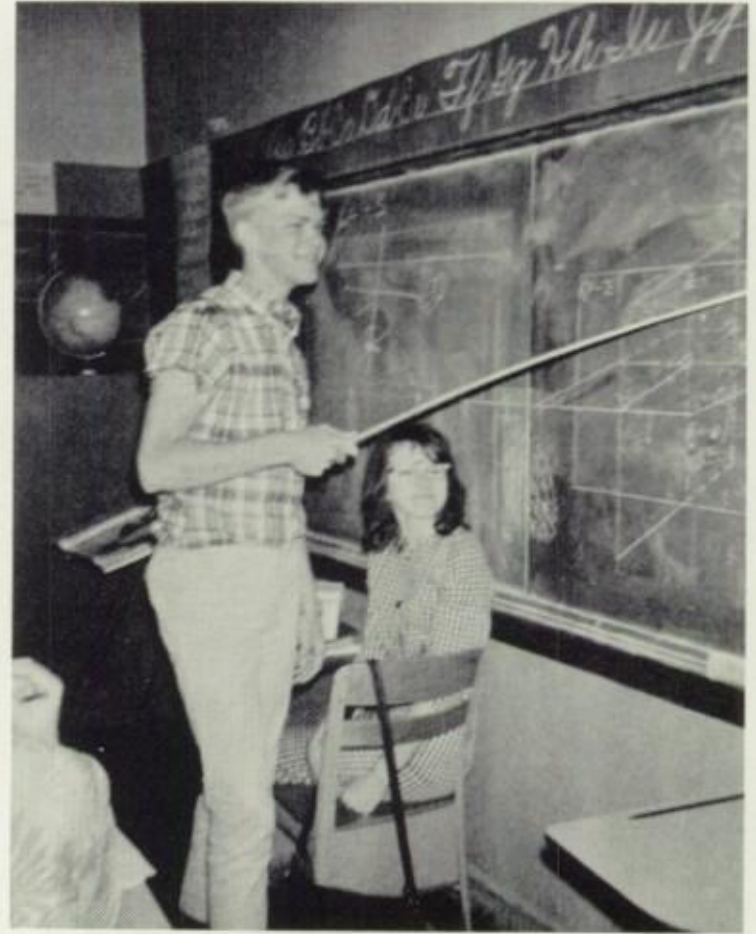

Kayleen Wiseman smiles broadly as she shows the ribbon she won for a first place in the Science Fair.

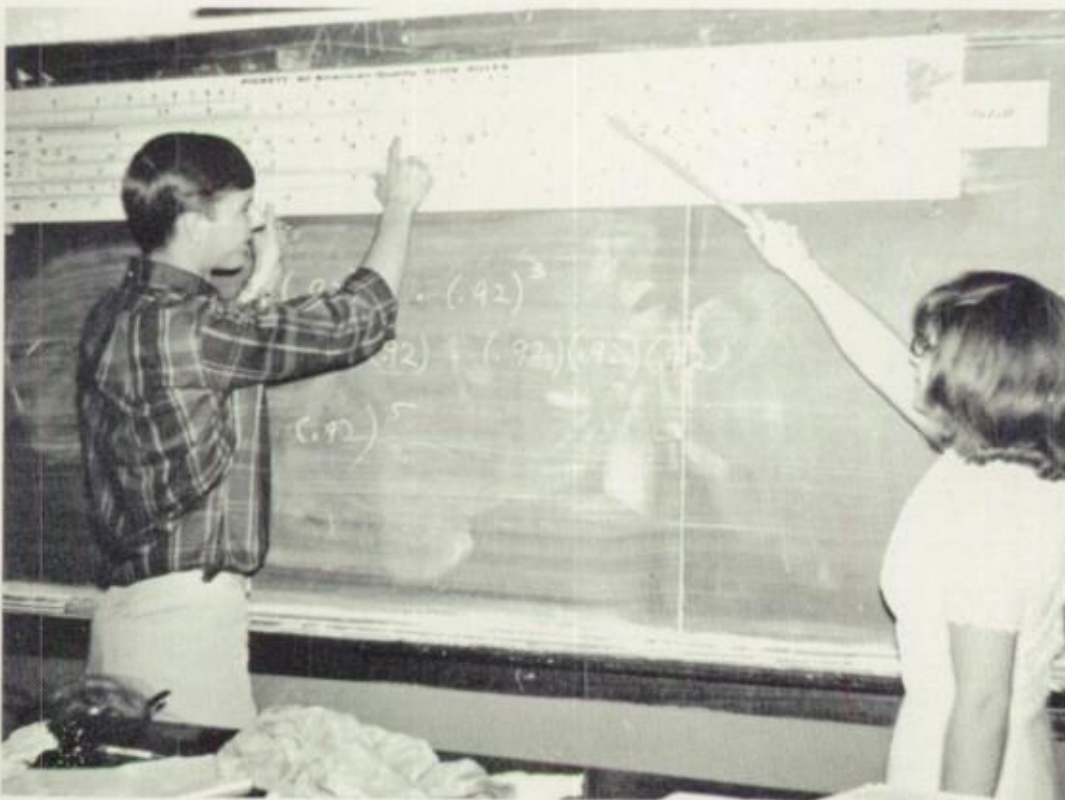

Dorsun Holmes and Susan Mackel study a display at the Science and Industry Museum which the sophomores visit each year.

As Science and Math become more and more important in today's world our students are studying harder than ever. Under the capable direction of Mr. Miller students study the life sciences, Biology and Advanced Biology. Mr. Black teaches Chemistry and Physics as well as Advanced Math. Mr. Merryman begins students in their study in Freshman Algebra and Mrs. Alter teaches theorems and assumptions in Geometry.

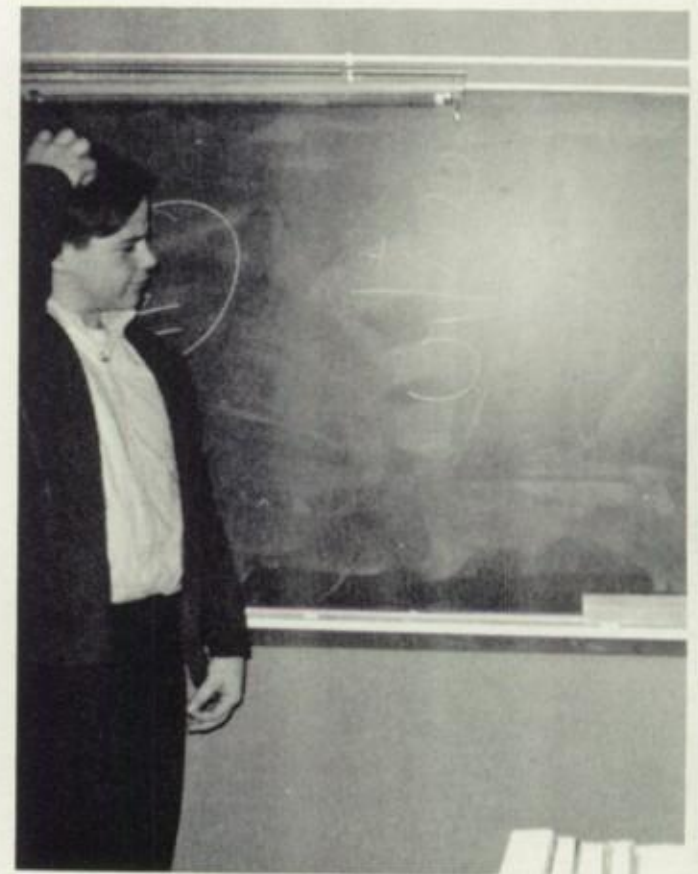

Alan Schmidt points out some difficult problems in Geometry as Vicki Snyder looks on.

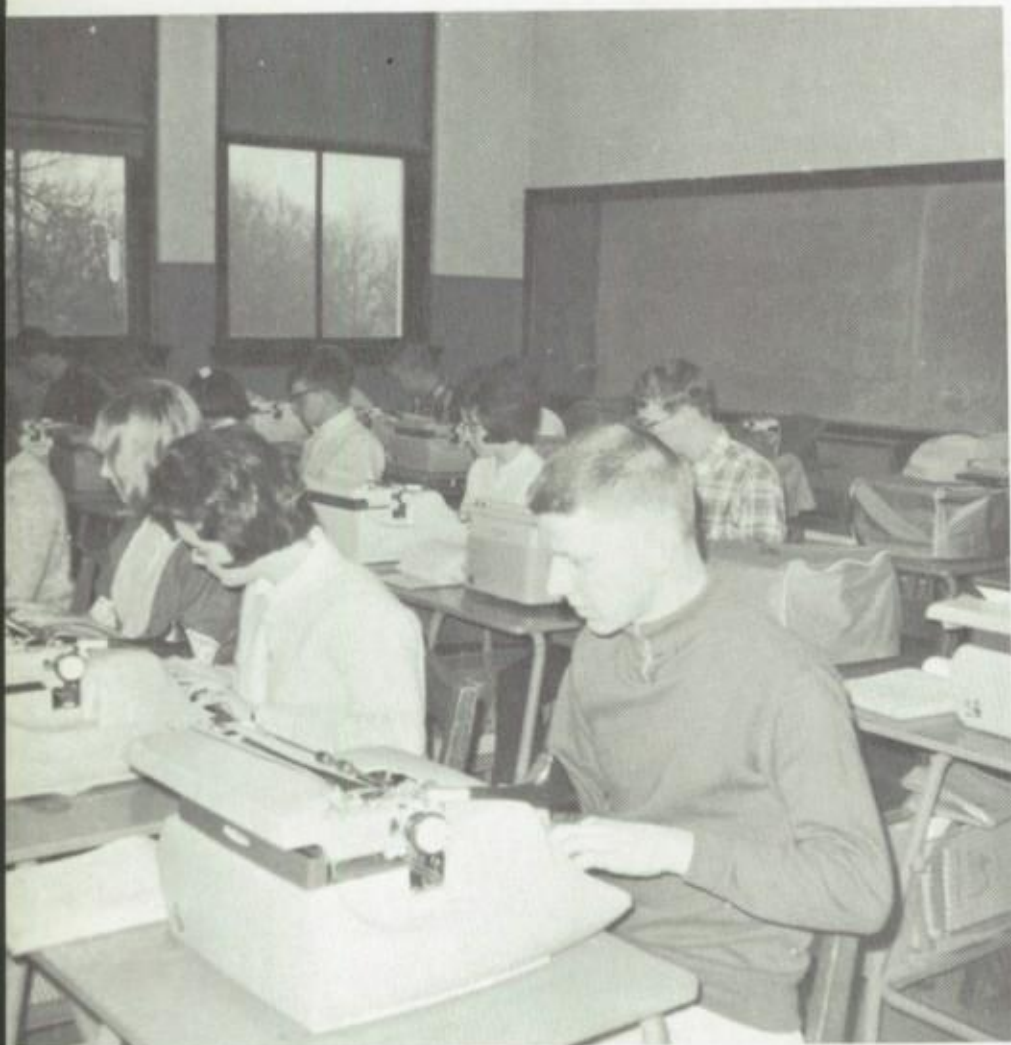

IN SCIENCE AND MATH

The slide rule often provides problems for advanced math students. Here Bill Lucas and Connie Newhouser study the enlarged slide rule for practice.

Oh, come now Kirk! Everyone knows that $2 + 2$ doesn't equal 5 -- it's 6! (Or is it?)

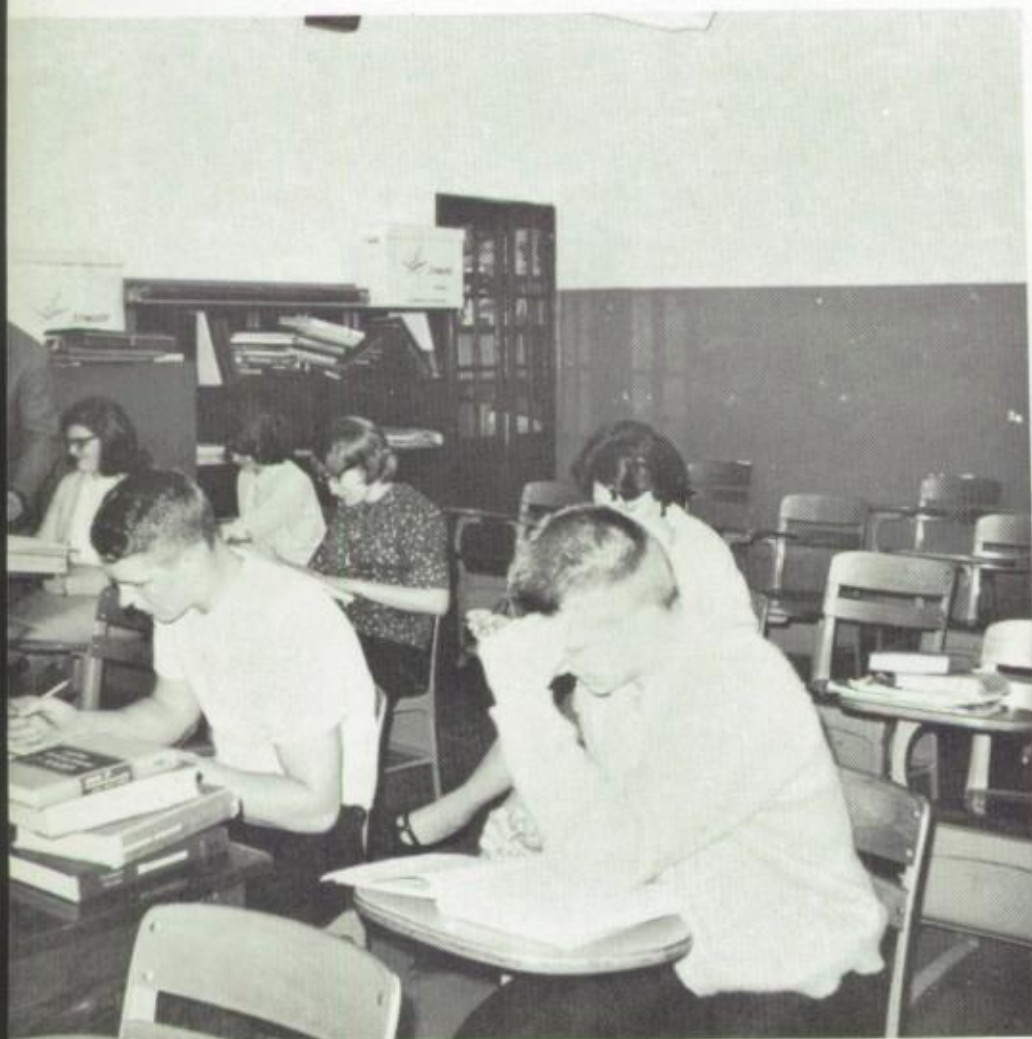

Students are busy learning the fundamentals in typing I.

Carolyn Mills transcribes some shorthand for her class.

STUDENTS LEARN BUSINESS SKILLS

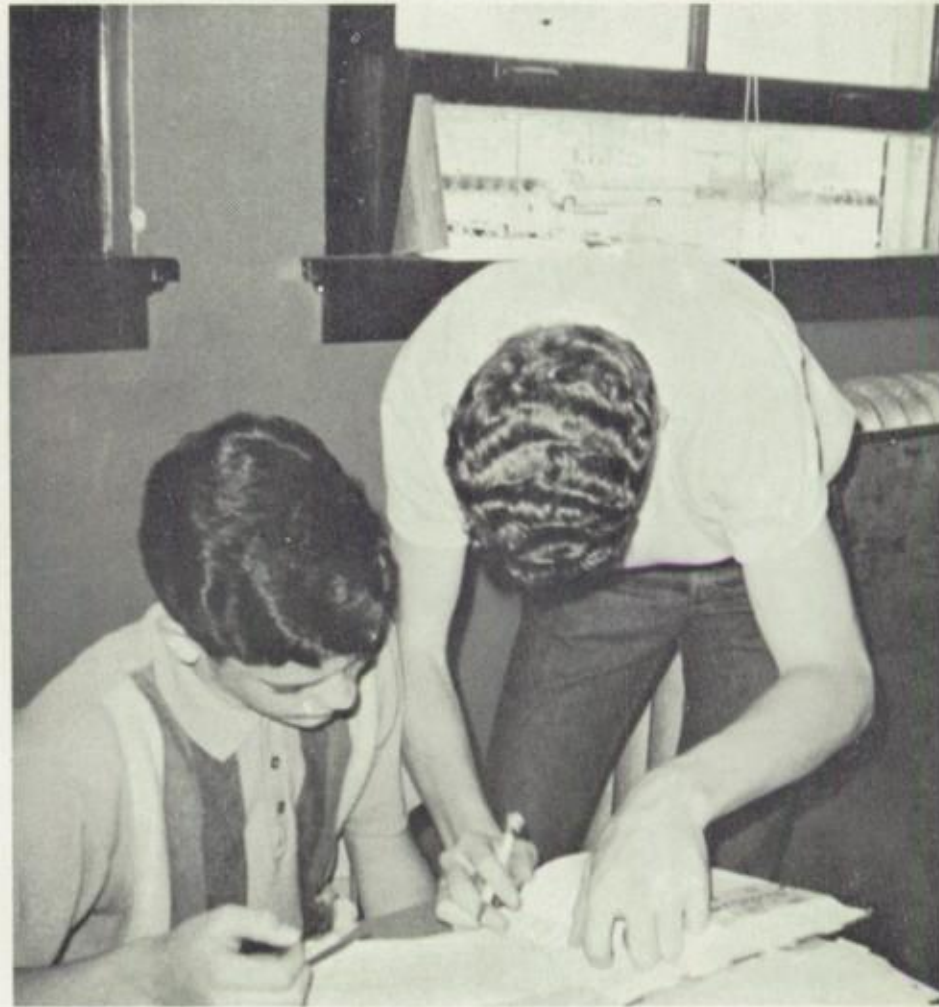

Business students learn their trade under the direction of Mr. Lieberum for typing I, Mr. Fox for typing II and shorthand, and Mr. Sloffer for bookkeeping.

These general business students are deep in thought as they solve one of their difficult problems.

Becky Anderson and Linda McBride study a map used in U. S. History.

Learning to use his Citizenship, Tom Briggs helps Dave McComb with an assignment.

THEN -- AND -- NOW

Four skillful teachers bring the past and present into view for students. Mr. Holderman teaches Citizenship to the Freshmen. Miss Poling explores World History. Mr. Roberts teaches U. S. History and also Government while Mr. Richey is another Government teacher.

In a few years Chris Jenks and Larry Hess will be using that voting machine for serious business.

The Home Economics girls prepared a delectable buffet luncheon during class, and then enjoyed the finished product. It looks marvelous!!!

Marcia Learned is receiving her Betty Crocker Award pin from Mrs. Hostetler. Marcia richly deserved this award. Congratulations, Marcia!

AGRICULTURE AND HOME ECONOMICS

Here are just a few scenes from the home economic department's fashion show entitled "Fashion Magic".

It may look like a messy job but Tom Briggs works a project in the Ag shop.

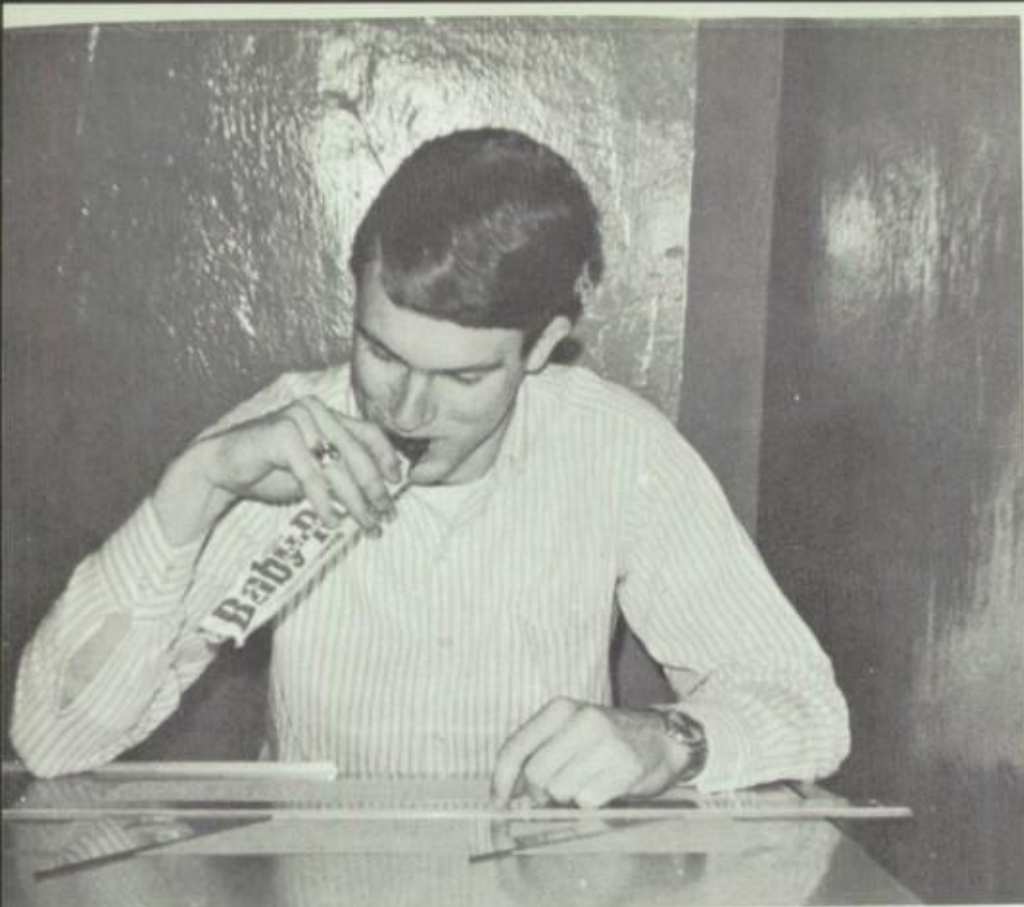

Here Dennis Hobson works on a new project in shop.

TRADES FOR THE FUTURE

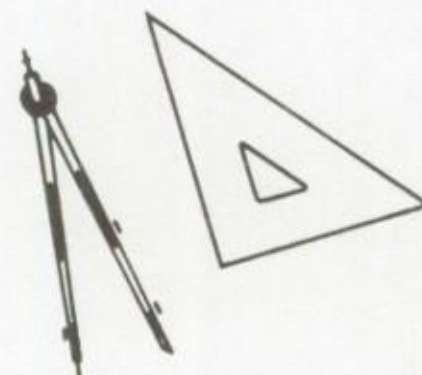

The Home Ec. department this year was under the supervision of Mrs. Hostetler and Mrs. Debets while Mr. Pfafman headed the Ag. department. The Home Ec. girls were busy this year as they planned the annual style show. The Ag. department grew under the new direction this year and was awarded many high honors. Outstanding students in the two departments were Penny Richards, who won the coveted Crisco Award, and Bob Bowker, who was named Chapter Farmer of the year.

Another useful trade learned in Ag is welding. Here a number of boys practice their knowledge.

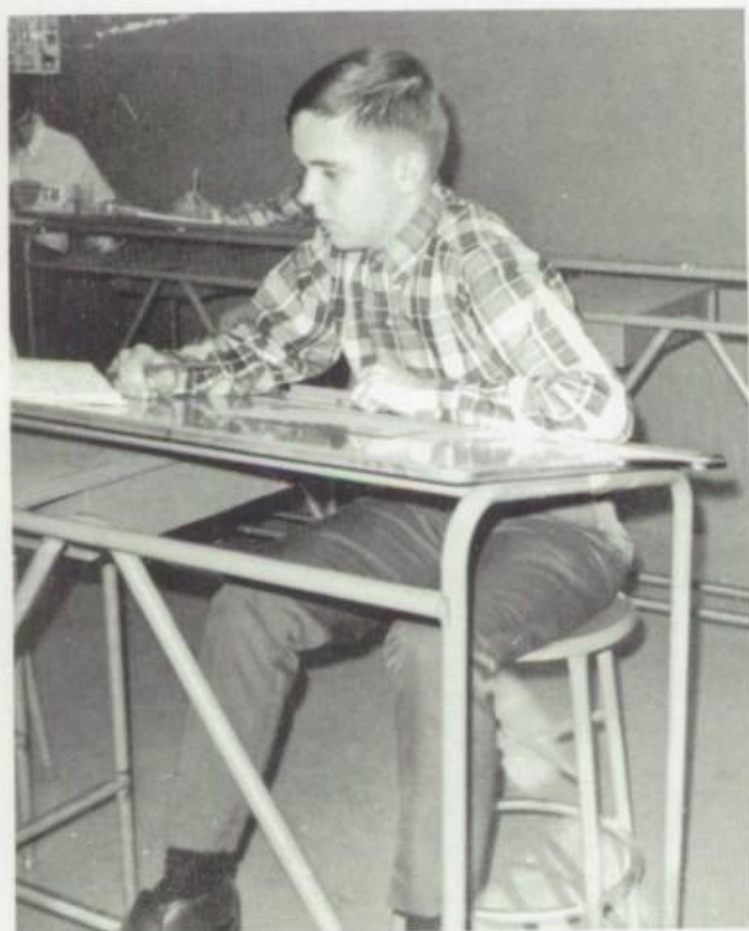

Mr. Hall headed the Drafting and Industrial Arts departments. Under his leadership boys learned many new skills to be used later in life.

Ed Hatch finds Drafting so engrossing that he even studies during his lunch hour--While eating!

DRAFTSMEN USE DETERMINATION TO DESIGN

Here Steve Hadley slaves over a tough problem!

Richard Dewitt sharpens some tools for more work in Industrial Arts.

Mr. Mellers is the director of our guidance department. Here he helps Barbara Ott make a college selection.

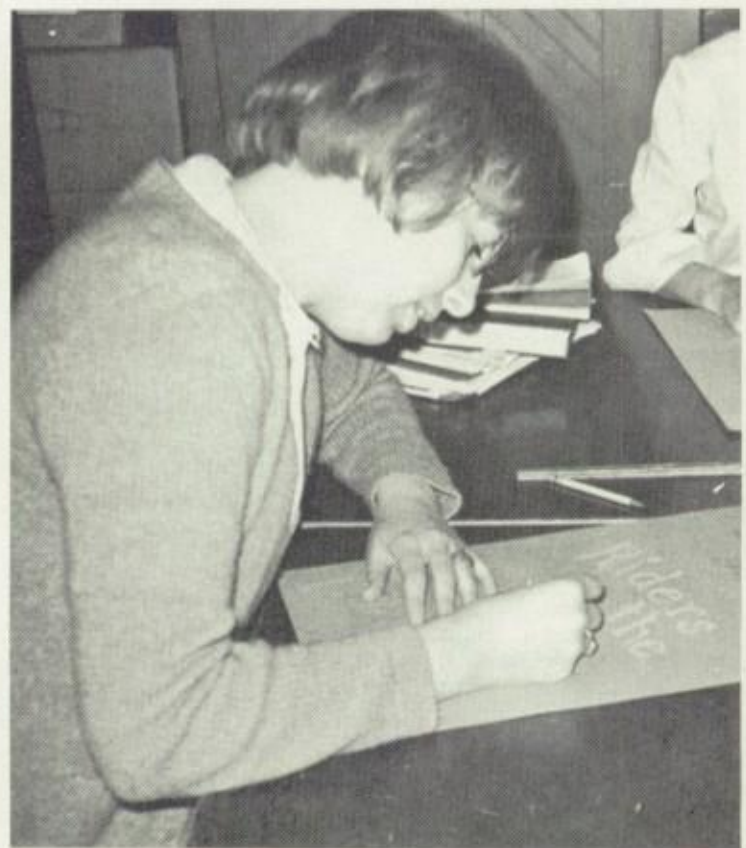

The Guidance department under the direction of Mr. Mellers is a very important aspect of our school life. Besides giving tests and recording scores, he helps students with decisions pertaining to the future and our problems of today.

Under the skillful direction of Mrs. Walsh, students learn about hues, lighting, and shading in the art department. With their unique ideas, they produce interesting displays.

ART AND GUIDANCE

Richard Bonjour draws a landscape scene. This is just one of the many projects the class undertakes.

June Fredrick is working hard on a publicity poster for one of the school plays.

BUILDING OUR BODIES

Learning to give artificial respiration are Terry Sands and Bob Parrish.

In Physical Education and Health and Safety students learn the art of keeping their bodies well and strong. Miss Poling directs the girls in Physical Education while Mr. Gorsuch and Mr. Kindy lead the boys. Mr. Gorsuch also teaches the Health and Safety classes.

Ann Bosler demonstrates that a girl can play baseball too.

Is climbing flag poles a new form of physical fitness Me?!

This year's Exploratory Teaching class grew to fifteen under the direction of Mrs. Hostetler. They studied new methods of teaching and, after a period of observations, participated in various classes themselves. They graded papers, made displays, tutored students and sometimes even presented the lessons themselves under the supervision of the participating teacher.

Here Bob Warner helps some grade school students with reading.

S P O R T S

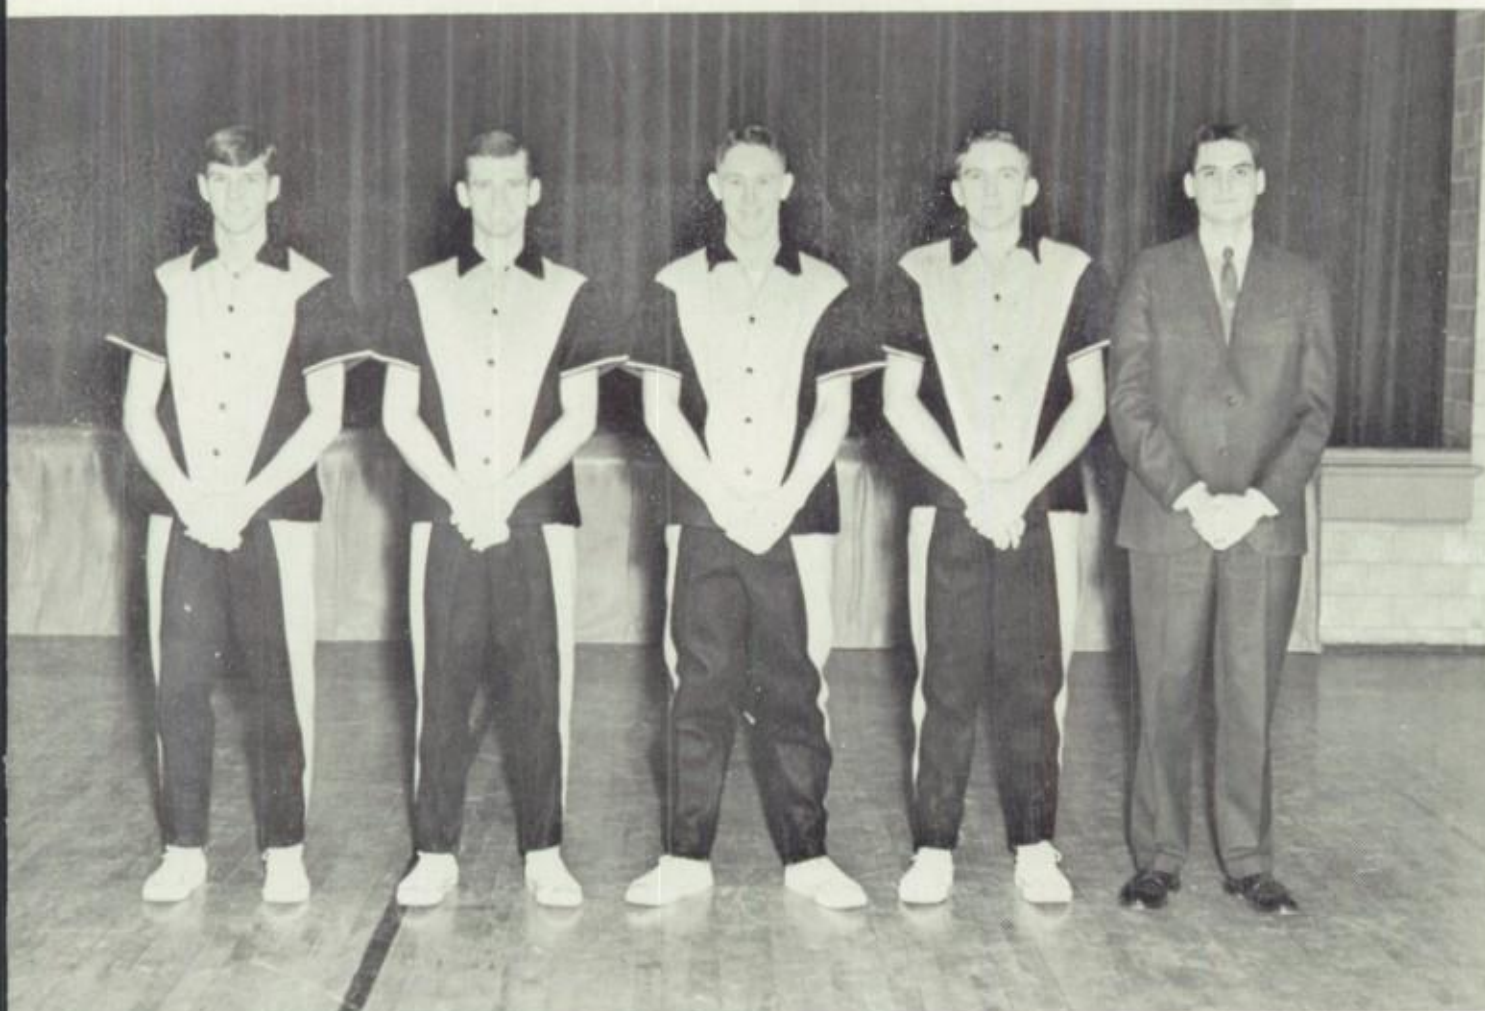

The varsity basketball team had an excellent record this year. They finished the season with an impressive 16 wins and 7 hard fought losses. They shared the A. C. A. C. crown with two other schools.

At the tourney they leaped into the final game after stomping Hoagland and Arcola. The mighty Wildcats were then tamed by Ossian in a breath taking overtime battle. At the Sectional Tourney they again showed their great teamwork by defeating Bishop Dwenger. They lost to Monroeville in one of their best games ever. The climax of the season was when four of our team members were selected for the A. C. A. C. All-Star Teams, showing our team is great!

"RUN FOR YOUR LIFE"

Roy keeps the boys hopping during warm-up.

Lloyd Hoot was chosen most valuable player.

Richard, Al, Bill, and Tom share the baton they carried to many victories in the relays.

This year our Track Team was one of the best ever. They came in second in the A. C. A. C. meet but they broke two county records and three school records. This year our outstanding Cats included Bill Lucas who broke the long jump record, Lloyd Hoot who broke the pole vault record, and our half mile relay team who broke their record. They had a fine year and the school was proud of our boys.

Tom Brunner is first over the line, in the ACAC meet, for the 'Cats.

Bill Lucas sets a record of over 21' in the long jump.

CLASS OF '66

CLASS MOTTO: TO LIGHT A TORCH FOR THE FUTURE

CLASS COLORS: BURGANDY AND WHITE

CLASS FLOWER: TEA ROSE

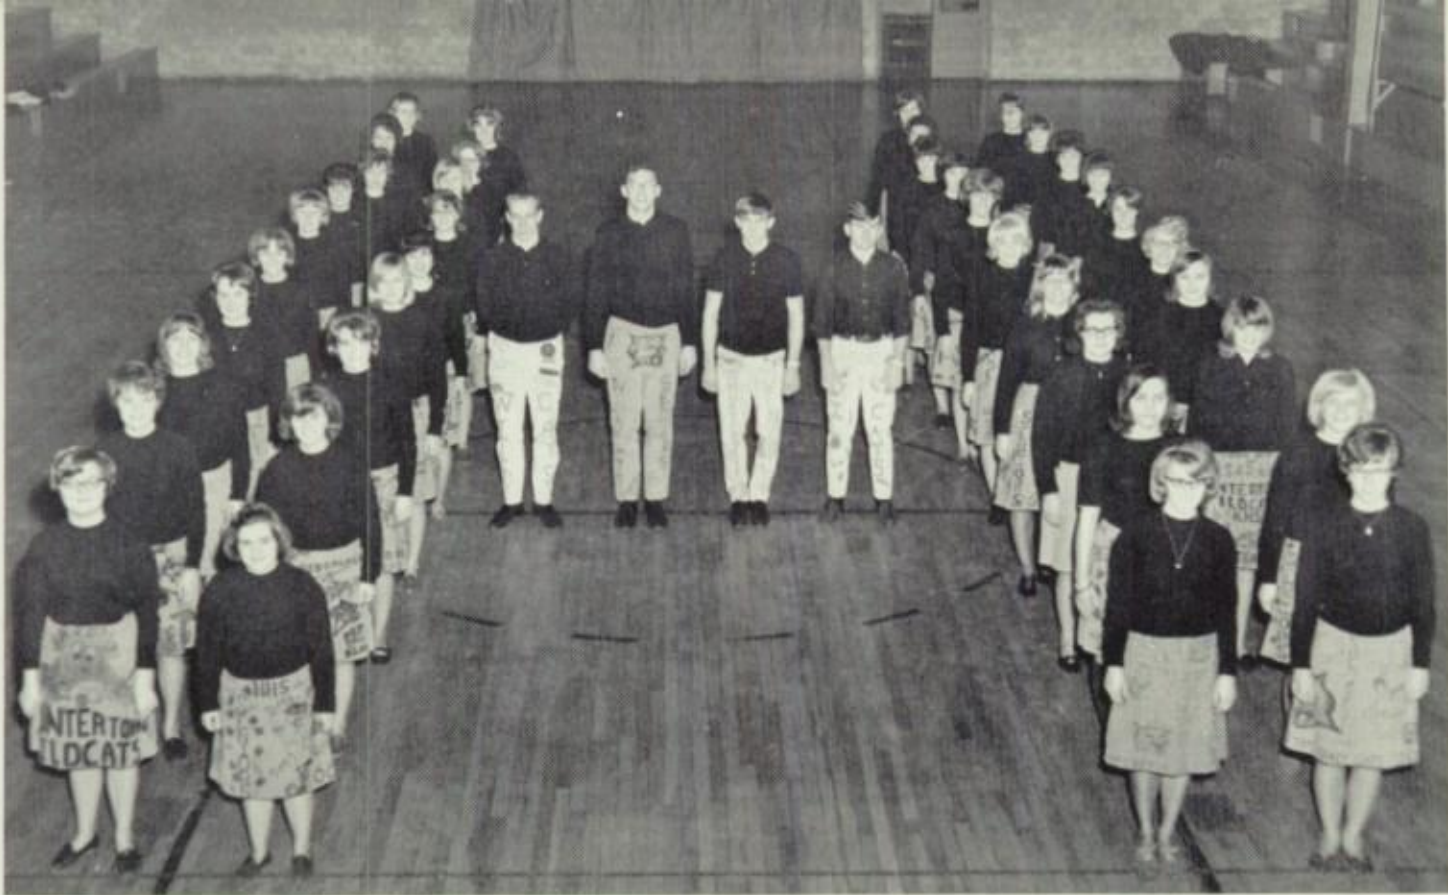

KIMIKO TAKEI graduated with the class of '66 after attending her Senior year at Huntertown.

She is originally from Japan, but came to America to learn of our ways.

We, her fellow-classmates, wish to thank her for the friendship and kindness she has given us.

BARBARA OTT and SHERI SIMON were named salutatorian and valedictorian respectively of this year's graduates. Sheri earned a perfect 4.00 average while Barbara's was an enviable 3.97. Congratulations, girls!

Proud of their bright new cords, the Seniors line up in H-formation.

Sparkling the entertainment on many occasions was the Senior Madrigal, bigger and better than ever this year.

Seniors worked hard to earn extra money this year by sponsoring a car wash. Here Gary Davis scrubs away.

Seniors this year went together to buy a class ring for Kimiko Takei, a foreign student. Here she is presented with her ring at the Senior banquet by Dave White.

The Girls' State Representatives are Mary Ann Motz and Linda Halt.

The Junior class officers are Martin Bragg, Treasurer; Arnold Bailey, Vice-President; Marvin Schlatter, President; and Linda Halt, Secretary.

JUNIORS

The Boys' State Representatives are Mark Helge and Martin Bragg.

As term paper time rolls around, we see Dave Mackel, Marv Schlatter, and Dan McComb doing some research in the library.

It looks like Sharon Grush is getting a little rest in the Home Economics room.
